

REMINDER

A graphic of a spiral notebook with a black border and a white background. The spiral binding is on the left side, consisting of a series of black loops. The text is centered on the page.

If you have been isolated or quarantined, the Stewart County School System will not require a doctor's excuse to return to school. If you are given any documentation concerning your covid status you may turn it in to the school's front office.